MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Visit of Senate Appropriations Defense Subcommittee to Headquarters

1. Susan Shekmar, staffer for the Defense Subcommittee of SAC, called yesterday to inform us that Chairman Stevens would like to accept the Director's offer of breakfast and briefing on Friday, 22 March at 8:00 a.m. We will be receiving information on Members and staff attending and their available time shortly.

2. In earlier conversations Susan said Chairman Stevens had been out for a briefing four or five years ago when briefers covered the hot spots around the world, and that is what he would like again. We also discussed the intelligence briefing on Nicaragua [redacted], and they would like that included if time permits.

3. Based on the questions raised by Senator Rudman at the NFIP hearing, we should expect that he will want to hear more about [redacted]

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Visit of Senate Appropriations Defense Subcommittee to Headquarters

In a conversation with Susan Shekmar, SAC Defense Subcommittee, concerning the Stevens visit, she again suggested a worldwide briefing of significant situations including both intelligence and covert actions. She also urged that we use the occasion to describe our capabilities and shortfalls. She also asked if narcotics would be addressed. I told her I thought both narcotics and terrorism would be addressed in the context of geographical coverages.
